

Protective device

- Suitable for our capacitive level probes series iLevel (KFI-1-2-...ETF)
- Housing material: Polyethylene translucent
- High chemical resistance
- Additional protection for the keypad against jet water, other contamination and unintentional adjustment.
- The protective device can be attached and removed from the probe head at any time.
- Due to the lateral opening of the protective device, you do not need to remove it for operate the probe. The position of the opening can be changed by turning. (See drawing below).

Technical data

Applicable for housings with diameter:	30 mm
Type	Protective device for iLevel
Art.-No.	190 480
Material	PE Polyethylene translucent
Permitted ambient temperature	-25...+70 °C

All specifications are subject to change without notice. (15.07.2019)

